

Anantha Krishnan, Managing Director and Chief Mentor, Trimentus Technologies

Anantha has 25 Years of Global leadership Experience in the areas of Business Transformation, Leadership Development, and Marketing and Customer Strategy. Anantha works with institutions to accelerate business value by developing innovative leadership and transformational programs using latest pedagogical thinking and research methods.

A proven thought leader and expert in the area of Business Transformation and Analytics, Anantha over the years has developed a 'customer-centric' entrepreneurship model which integrates business value identification, innovative business model development and human capital transformation to truly deliver enhanced business performance for customers.

He has delivered several path-breaking business transformation solutions to Fortune 100 clients such as AT&T, E*TRADE, JPMC, Wells Fargo, DuPont, HP, Oracle and others by integrating business strategy, knowledge processes, analytics and technology.

Anantha has held positions as a senior partner at Accenture, NY and CEO of CGI India

Anantha is an Alumnus of IIT Mumbai and Stern school of Business, NY